Sailing Adventures

Croatia

Croatia has become a hotspot for tourism as it offers a diversity of destinations, set against spectacular natural landscapes. The Croatian Adriatic includes 1,185 islands, islets and reefs and the coastline stretches 1,778kms. The mainland and the islands are dotted with fishing villages, apparently unchanged in many years and the otherwise uninhabited islands which come alive in the summer as the restaurants, cafes and bars open for the passing summer trade. We will visit the heartland of Croatia – the Dalmatian Coast of the Mid & Southern Adriatic Sea. This area of the coast allows you to take in the history and architecture of Croatia; lose yourself in smaller towns such as Polace, Hvar Town, Kobas Bay or nearby Ston and Mali Ston.

 Please Note: Destinations are indicative of where we plan to be for each day. This itinerary may vary depending on a change of circumstances, weather conditions or operator's choice. **

SUNDAY - DAY 2

B.L.D.

KOBAS BAY

Today it's off to Kobas Bay along the Ston Channel.

This peaceful Bay is dotted with restaurants and villas. A visit to nearby Ston and Mali Ston (Little Ston) is a must to see the largest oyster and mussel growing areas of Croatia. Those who wish, should walk the "wall" from Ston to Mali Ston with views and history galore.

Dinner will be at the world famous "Gastro Mare" restaurant on the waterfront in Kobas Bay, hosted by world renowned chef, Toni Bjelancic...this place is a gourmet's delight.

MONDAY - DAY 3

B.L.D.

POLACE

In the morning we will sail to the secluded town of Polace on the Island of Mljet. From Polace we will explore the Lakes, Malo & Veliko Jezero as well as the ancient Benedictine Monastery on the islet of Sv. Marija. Moored 3 metres from our restaurant, we will enjoy the best of open grilled seafood fresh from the local fishermen along with local wines.

TUESDAY - DAY 4

B.D.

KORCULA TOWN

A short sail up to the island of Korcula sees us arriving in Korcula Town....

The city with the same name as the Island is said to be the best preserved-medieval settlement in the Mediterranean. Korcula had a strategic position in the Adriatic over the centuries, where its tall towers could monitor the passing galleys and sailing ships. It is also the birthplace of Marco Polo. Marco Polo's house is a must visit here.

WEDNESDAY - DAY 5

B.L.D.

PALMIZANA BAY

Palmizana Bay is a small bay located off the island of Hvar, known for its natural beauty and secluded setting. The bay is situated on the north side of the island and is protected from the open sea by a string of small islands called the Pakleni Group, which makes it a popular spot for swimming, sunbathing, and boat trips.

One of the most interesting features of Palmizana Bay is its crystal-clear waters and unspoiled marine environment. The bay is surrounded by lush Mediterranean vegetation, and its waters are home to a variety of fish and sea creatures. Visitors can enjoy snorkeling and diving in the bay, to explore the rich marine life.

The Middle Adriatic

PALMIANA, PAKLENI, HVAR TOWN, SOLTA, TROGIR & SPLIT

THURSDAY - DAY 6

B.D.

HVAR TOWN

Early morning, we are off to Hvar Town on the Island of Hvar. Hvar is an undisputed sailing magnet, beautiful, historical and a place in which you will dine in style. Sailing into Hvar is a visual spectacle. The cliffs are farmed with sage, rosemary, olives and grapes and look remarkably manicured. Hvar has a fabulous promenade on the waterfront with palm trees and the Venetian settlement. The old walled fortress is worth visiting. Hvar offers culture, art and buildings, but is most famous for its restaurants, bars and night life.

FRIDAY - DAY 7

B.L.D.

MASLINICA

This morning we will head to the island of Solta and the village of Maslinica. Maslinica is a settlement on Solta, situated in a bay on the western part of the island and is distinguished by a natural landscape, with the picturesque bay and a pine wood on the south side in the vicinity of the deep, well-protected Šešula bay.

SATURDAY - DAY 8

B.L.D.

TROGIR & SPLIT

We will transfer to your accommodation in the old town in Split. Explore Split at leisure. That night your "Sailing Adventures" team will host our group at a farewell dinner in the ancient Diocletian Palace...

Split is the largest city on the eastern Adriatic coast and has a history dating back 1,700 years to the time when the Emperor Diocletian had a residence built here, the remains of which are still the most important feature of the old part of the city and waterfront. Life in Split is lived outdoors with fascinating architecture, museums, markets, restaurants and street entertainment.
