SeaLink Magnetic Island Race Week 2023

The SeaLink Magnetic Island Race Week is a premier sailing event that takes place annually at the breathtakingly beautiful tropical North Queensland paradise ... Magnetic Island. This event brings together sailors from all over the world to compete in a week-long regatta, showcasing their skills and testing their abilities in a range of competitive racing events.

The SeaLink Magnetic Island Race Week offers a unique and unforgettable experience for all sailors, whether you're a seasoned professional or a novice looking to hone your skills. The event features a wide variety of races, including round-the-buoys, island courses, and long-distance races, ensuring that every sailor can experience a range of round the island racing as well as set courses.

In addition to the exciting racing action, the SeaLink Magnetic Island Race Week also offers a range of fun social events for competitors and spectators alike. From beach parties and barbecues to live entertainment and award ceremonies, there's always something fun and exciting happening throughout the week.

One of the most unique aspects of the Magnetic Island Race Week is the stunning location itself. Magnetic Island is a tropical paradise that boasts crystal-clear waters, pristine beaches, and an abundance of marine life. The island's natural beauty provides the perfect backdrop for the exciting racing action, ensuring that every sailor is treated to an unforgettable experience both on and off the water.

Overall, the SeaLink Magnetic Island Race Week is a must-attend event for sailors of all skill levels who are looking for an exhilarating racing experience in one of the most beautiful locations on the planet. With its competitive racing, fun social events, and stunning natural beauty, this event truly has something for everyone.

The Swan 57' "White Swan"

Designed by Olin Stephens and built by Nautor's Swan. Swan is the premier Yacht builder in the world and have held that mantle for many years and with good reason. No-one builds yachts to the standard and beauty of Swan. They are built to last several lifetimes and to live and breathe the ocean.

First class sailing experience on these excellent yachts built from one of the worlds most respected yacht builders renowned for their exceptional quality, luxurious accommodation and supreme comfort. Swan combine this with great beauty and exhilarating sailing performance.
