Sailing Adventures

Croatia & Montenegro

Croatia has become a hotspot for tourism as it offers a diversity of destinations, set against spectacular natural landscapes. The Croatian Adriatic includes 1,185 islands, islets and reefs and the coastline stretches 1,778kms. The mainland and the islands are dotted with fishing villages, apparently unchanged in many years and the otherwise uninhabited islands which come alive in the summer as the restaurants, cafes and bars open for the passing summer trade. We will visit the heartland of Croatia and Montenegro – the Dalmatian Coast of the Mid & Southern Adriatic Sea. This area of the coast allows you to take in the history and architecture of Croatia and Montenegro; lose yourself in smaller towns such as Komiza, Hvar Town, Vis or nearby Vrbosca on Hvar not to mention the beauty and wonders of Montenegro.

 Please Note: Destinations are indicative of where we plan to be for each day. This itinerary may vary depending on a change of circumstances, weather conditions or operator's choice. **

The Middle Adriatic

Split, Maslinica, Komiza & Palmizana

Split is the largest city on the eastern Adriatic coast and has a history dating back 1,700 years to the time when the Emperor Diocletian had a residence built here, the remains of which are still the most important feature of the old part of the city and waterfront. Life in Split is lived outdoors with fascinating architecture, museums, markets, restaurants and street entertainment.

DAY 1 FRIDAY D. SPLIT

Arrive at Split and be transferred to your accommodation.

Explore Split at leisure. That night your “Sailing Adventures“ team will host our group at a welcome dinner and get-to-know you.

DAY 2 SATURDAY D. MASLINICA

A free morning roaming The Old City of Split and the spectacular Diocletian Palace.

Saturday afternoon we will board our yacht and head to the island of Solta and the village of Maslinica. Maslinica is a settlement on Solta, situated in a bay on the western part of the island. Maslinica is distinguished by a natural landscape, with the picturesque bay and a pine wood on the south side in the vicinity of the deep, well-protected Šešula bay.

DAY 3 SUNDAY B.L.D. KOMIZA

Today we are off to Komiza on the spectacular island of Vis. This island is far from the mainland and has always been a significant haven for mariners in the central Adriatic. Vis is an island of vineyards and vintners who have responded in style by opening wine-cellars and shops. In summer there are cultural events associated with the Vis Summer Festival and alongside more hedonistic pursuits, you can also visit the local museum which will give you an idea of the significance of the historical surroundings into which you have sailed. We will moor overnight in the town of Komiza.

DAY 4 MONDAY B.L.D. PALMIZANA

Our first stop is the famous Blue Grotto just off the island of Vis. We will explore the grotto and marvel at the magical blue colours created by sunlight seeping through the underwater openings. From there we are off to the Pakleni Group of Islands. This spectacular set of islands and bays are a must see in the area ... Especially Palmizana Bay which is a spectacular bay on the southern side of Klement Island.

The Islands of Croatia

Hvar, Zaklopatica, Korcula Town & Mljet

Today it's off to Hvar Town on the Island of Hvar. Hvar is an undisputed sailing magnet, beautiful, historical and a place in which you will dine in style. Sailing into Hvar is a visual spectacle. The cliffs are farmed with sage, rosemary, olives and grapes and look remarkably manicured. Hvar has a fabulous promenade on the waterfront with palm trees and the Venetian settlement. The old walled fortress is definitely worth visiting. Hvar offers culture, art and buildings, but is most famous for its restaurants, bars and night life.

The city with the same name as the Island is said to be the best-preserved medieval settlement in the Mediterranean. Marco Polo's house is a must visit here.

Dubrovnik for the day. This grand medieval, walled city is an architectural mix. It encompasses the old walled town and the new stone houses with their uniform orange roofs. We will overnight at one of the nearby islands before departing for the marina in the morning.

TUESDAY DAY 12

It occupies the northeast section of the huge bay, alongside the charming village lying along the waterfront. It is surrounded by lush vegetation, palm trees and thick woods, which reach down to the sea. Cavtat is a typical Mediterranean village, somewhat more refined than most, as it bears the stamp of the Dubrovnik Republic.

Montenegro is in our sights for today. Montenegro, known as the pearl of the Mediterranean, unique in many ways, situated in the south of the Adriatic. Nowhere else can you find, so much natural wealth, beauty, mild beaches, clear lakes, fast rivers, and gorgeous mountains in such a compact area as in Montenegro.
